A black and white photograph of a storefront. The main sign above the entrance reads "戒賭面面中" (Jiè dǔ miàn miàn zhōng) in large, stylized Chinese characters. To the right of the text are two small decorative elements: a square with an 'X' and a die. The entrance is a glass door with a person standing inside, facing away from the camera. To the right of the door is a large window with a grid pattern. The wall below the window has a textured, patterned appearance. The overall scene is in black and white, giving it a historical or documentary feel.
