A surreal digital artwork depicting a person standing on a dark, reflective surface, holding a pink umbrella. The person is facing a colossal, curling wave that dominates the scene. The wave is rendered with vibrant, ethereal colors: deep blues and purples in its troughs, transitioning to bright yellows and oranges at its crest, suggesting a fiery or magical core. The sky above is a soft, hazy pink, with two white birds in flight in the upper left corner. The overall mood is dreamlike and awe-inspiring, with a strong contrast between the small human figure and the immense, colorful natural phenomenon.
