TEENAGER ARRESTED IN COMPUTER CRIME SCANDAL

Damn kids. They're all ALIKE.

But did you... in your thirteen-piece psychology and 1950's techno-brain, ever take a look behind the mask of the hacker?

Did you ever wonder what made him tick... what forces shaped him... what may have molded him...

I am a hacker, enter my world... mine is a world that begins with school...

I've listened to teachers explain for the fifteenth time how to nodate a freshman. I understand... Damn underclassmen... No, Ms. Smith, I didn't show my work. I did it in my head. Probably copied it. They're all alike.

I made a discovery today. I found a computer. Wait a second, this is cool; it does what I want it to... it's got a screen, a keyboard, it even lights up. Not because it doesn't like me... Or feels threatened by me... Or doesn't like teaching and cheating go hand-in-hand... It won't happen here... a door opened to a world... looking through the window here you can see the city at night... an electronic pulse is sent out, a refuge from the day-to-day incomprehensibilities is sought... a beacon is found.

"This is it... this is where I belong..." I know everyone here... even if I've never met them, never talked to them, may never hear from them again... I know you all... Damn kid. Tying up the phone line again. They're all alike... You bet your ass we're all alike.

I've been spoon-fed baby food in school when we hungered for flesh... The bits of meat that you do sit through were pre-chewed and tasteless. We've been dominated by sadists, or ignored by the apathetic. The few that had something to teach found us willing pupils, but those few are like drops of water in the desert.

This is our world now... the world of the electron and the switch, the beauty of the baud. We make use of a service already existing without paying for what could be dirt-cheap if it wasn't run by profiteering gluttons, and you call us criminals.

We explore... We seek after knowledge... We seek after knowledge... We seek without skin and bones, without rationality, without religious bias... and YOU call us criminals.

You build atomic bombs, you wage wars, you murder, cheat, and lie to us and try to make us believe it's FOR OUR OWN GOOD, yet we're the criminals.

Yes, I am a criminal. My crime is that of curiosity. My crime is that of judging people by what they say and think... My CRIME is that of outsmarting you... something that you will NEVER forgive me for.

I am a hacker, and this is my manifesto. You may stop this individual, but you can't stop US all... after all... WE'RE ALL ALIKE.
