A photograph of a modern hospital corridor. The floor is highly reflective and white, with a dark patterned border along the edge. The ceiling is white with several square recessed lights. On the right, there are glass-walled rooms. One room has a blue sign that reads "收费处" (Reception/收费处). Below the glass, there is a counter with a small potted plant and some items. Further down the corridor, another glass room is visible with a sign that reads "药房" (Pharmacy). The corridor is clean and well-lit.
